TONIGHT'S GAME

THE FIELD: The highlight of tonight's game between Emporia State University and Fort Hays State University could be the newly renovated Lewis Field Stadium. Last year the students at FHSU voted to assess themselves a fee to help finance the renovation of the interior of Lewis Field Stadium. Tonight what you see is the result of the unselfish act of the university students. This past summer the grass football field and cinder track were replaced with state of the art artificial surfaces. The green turf lies upon a rubber surface. Beneath it is a layer of crushed rock which allows for maximum drainage. A new eight lane rubber and polyurethane track surrounds the football playing surface. The native limestone structure was refurbished to its natural state when 57 years of weathering were sandblasted away.

THE SERIES: Emporia State and Fort Hays State are meeting for the 67th time in the history of the two cross state rivals. The Hornets lead the series 38-26-2, and have won the last two contests including a 24-17 victory at Emporia last season.

THE COACHES: Bob Cortese begins his fourth season as head of the FHSU football program. In three seasons at FHSU Cortese has posted a 22-12 record, ranking him fifth among Tiger coaches in total victories. His career mark stands at 106-34-3. Larry Kramer has been the head coach at ESU since 1983 and boasts a 63-42 mark in 10 seasons, second among Hornet coaches. Kramer's career mark stands at 116-102-5.

LAST SEASON: Last season the Tigers dropped their first four non-conference games of the season by a combined total of 20 points. FHSU rebounded to win 6-of-7 Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference games to finish second in the RMAC at 6-1-0. Overall the Tigers were 6-5-0. ESU won 7-of-8 to start the '92 season before losing to Pittsburg State and Northwest Missouri State the final two weeks of the season to finish at 7-3-0. The Hornets were 6-3-0 in the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association, tying for third place.

TONIGHT'S EVENTS: Just prior to the start of tonight's game Lewis Field Stadium will be rededicated when the game ball is passed to the referee. Director of Athletics Tom Spicer, President Edward Hammond, last years student body president Andy Addis and this years student body president Nate Halverson will pass the game ball to the referee.

At halftime members of FHSU's 1963, 65, 68 and 69 NAIA cross country championship teams will be presented rings in honor of their running accomplishments. The new eight-lane track will be officially dedicated the Alex Francis Track to honor the former FHSU cross country and track & field coach. Francis became a legend in track and cross country during 34-years at Fort Hays State University. Coach Francis guided cross country teams to four National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics championships and four runner-up finishes.

Between the third and fourth quarter the winners of the Business Improvement District's $1000 shopping spree and $1000 FHSU tuition and book scholarship will be chosen.
